Macron: There will be NO SANTA for the Brits if I get my way

EVIL FRENCH PLOT TO WRECK CHRISTMAS

EVIL French President Emmanuel Macron is said to be behind a secret plot to WRECK Christmas for everyone in Britain.

The pint-sized Boss Frog has been secretly encouraging his country's fishermen to blockade the Channel, preventing billions of pounds worth of festive goodies from reaching our shores.

Jab queen pandemic warning

THE UK is "neglecting" the threat of future pandemics, the former chairwoman of the country's vaccine taskforce has said.

Dame Kate Bingham, widely credited with the jabs roll-out success, says the UK was "woefully underprepared" for COVID and urged ministers to act now to build defences against a future catastrophe.

She says there is a "devastating" lack of skills and experience and criticised a culture that "stifles initiative and encourages foot-dragging".

She says it took chief scientific adviser Sir Patrick Vallance, who has a background in drugs research, to step in and save the vaccine taskforce.

Dame Kate says if it had been left to the Government the vaccine programme may not have seen the same success.

Four-day week for same wages

ATOM Bank has started a four-day work week for its 430 staff without pay cuts.

Employees will now work 34 hours and get Monday or Friday off.

Boss Mark Mullen says it was inspired by the pandemic and would help improve wellbeing and retain staff.

However, employees will have to work longer on the days they are in.

He said: "Before COVID, the wisdom was you had to commute in and sit at a desk all day."

"COVID showed us it wasn't necessary... doing 9-5, Monday to Friday is pretty old fashioned."

HUNT: IT'S NOT BEEN A GOOD MONTH FOR TORIES

CRITIC: Jeremy Hunt

SENIOR Tory Jeremy Hunt said "the last month has not been a good month" as criticism of Boris Johnson's leadership mounted.

The Prime Minister's rambling speech to the CBI and a revolt over the Government's social care plans followed rows over issues including rail infrastructure and sleaze.

Health and Social Care Committee chairman Mr Hunt, who stood against Boris for the Tory leadership, said: "What I would say is the last month has not been a good month for the Government."

"But in the end the thing that will count when we next face the electorate is whether the things that we have promised to help ordinary people are actually happening."

(No shit, Sherlock!)

Mr Hunt pointed to the success of the COVID-19 vaccination campaign and the relative health of the economy as reasons for the Tories to stay positive despite the setbacks of the past few weeks.

"There are some things that are making a real difference," he added.

RAMBLE: Johnson's CBI speech was a disaster

Councils told to look after migrant kids

THE Home Office is forcing councils to take migrant children who have arrived in the UK without any parents or guardians.

A voluntary scheme is now going to be compulsory, meaning youngsters being looked after by authorities on England's south coast will be moved to other parts of the country.

The Home Office will send 200 councils a letter giving them two weeks to say why they should not accept them.

It comes after Home Secretary Priti Patel (above) defended her efforts to tackle the migrant crisis.

Enver Solomon, of the Refugee Council, said: "Children who arrive in the UK on their own seeking safety are vulnerable."

"They must receive local authority care immediately, a responsibility that must be shared by all UK local authorities."

"This should reduce unacceptable delays in vulnerable children, who have often experienced great trauma, getting vital care they need and is a very welcome move."

45 dead in coach crash

AT least 45 people, including 12 children, have died after a bus crashed and caught fire in Bulgaria.

The incident happened on a motorway south-west of the capital Sofia at about 2am local time.

The bus was registered in North Macedonia and was carrying tourists from the country, who were returning from Turkey.

Seven people escaped and were taken to hospital with burns.

A Bulgarian interior ministry official said it was unclear if the bus had caught fire and then crashed or burst into flames after crashing.

Officials said the bus appeared to have hit a highway barrier and pictures showed a section of the road where the barrier had been shorn off.

Frog President plots to cancel CHRISTMAS...

LE GRINCH!

DEVIOUS French President Emmanuel Macron is behind a fiendish plot to BLOCKADE Britain and ruin our CHRISTMAS!

The posturing Boss Frog has secretly encouraged militant French fishermen to wreck Britain's economy by blockading Calais or the Channel Tunnel, choking off supplies from Europe, including Crimbo treats.

Militant French fishermen vowed last night to wreck Britain's economy as skippers plotted a nationwide protest in a post-Brexit row over licences.

Olivier Lepretre, chairman of powerful northern France fisheries committee, made the threat after being egged on in late-night talks with Macron.

Without saying exactly how, Mr Lepretre said unions and skippers would act within days to will 'hit the British economy' unless there was a compromise from Downing Street.

"It is out of the question to

By SIMON DEAN
simon@sundaysport.co.uk

do anything that will harm the French economy," Mr Lepretre said in Boulogne-sur-Mer. "We will disrupt British interests."

"Let them give us licences. Otherwise, we will cut them off."

Piratical French fishermen are furious that Britain is insisting they have licences to operate in our waters.

Mr Lepretre spent Sunday evening on the phone to Mr Macron before making his latest threats.

Punish

Mr Macron faces re-election in April, and is under pressure to deliver the fishing licences before the presidential vote.

He has accused Britain of breaching the Brexit deal by withholding 150 licences from French fishermen, a number disputed by the government.

French minister Clement Beauce said the row was "not taken seriously enough" by the European Commission and that Paris wanted it to be resolved by Christmas.

THREATS: Macron and Frog fisherman Lepretre (below)

But Mr Beauce said France would consider going it alone to punish Britain if the dispute is not resolved, with threats including tighter checks and a ban on Brit trawlers landing catches in French ports.

He said: "We still have all options on the table... we would prefer to have it on the EU level but if nothing happens we will take French measures."

"But I don't want to go into that." France has backed down from similar threats in the past, scrapping a November 2 deadline to allow talks.

Tory MP Peter Bone said: "France seems determined to do anything to thumb its nose at the UK. This is all tied up with the French election. The idea that they have some right to punish us for having the temerity to leave the EU is amazing."

"The French are bullies. How do you deal with bullies? You stand up to them and they run away."

POPE PRAISES STABBED MP

THE Pope has praised Sir David Amess's years of "devoted public service" in a letter read at a church service for the Conservative MP who was killed while serving his constituents.

In the message to the Requiem Mass at Westminster Cathedral, Pope Francis called for mourners' resolve to be strengthened to "combat evil with good" and "build a society of ever greater justice" following the devout Catholic's death.

Politicians including Boris Johnson, Labour leader Sir Keir Starmer and three former prime ministers attended the service in central London, following a private funeral in Southend.

The fatal stabbing of Sir David (left) during a surgery in Leigh-on-Sea on October 15 deprived Southend West of its long-standing MP. The message from the Pope was read by Archbishop Claudio Gugerotti, to convey "his heartfelt condolences and the assurance of his spiritual closeness to the Amess family".

"His Holiness recalls with gratitude Sir David's years of devoted public service guided by his strong Catholic faith and evidenced in his deep concern for the poor and the disadvantaged."

Moby: Snoochie, about 2 hours ago

Her vagina must be gaping open if she's worried about bugs getting up ill! Silly girl.

Mr. Alf Barker: Snoochie, 1 hour ago

Looking at the state of her, she's probably had worse up there.

VIEWERS of I'm A Celebrity... Get Me Out Of Here! were left disgusted after Snoochie Shy discussed her private parts and toilet fears in graphic detail.

The Radio 1 Xtra presenter, 29, was among the familiar faces who had to introduce themselves and discuss their anxieties ahead of entering the castle in Wales.

She said on Sunday night's episode: "I'm quite terrified of a lot of things to be honest. I'm a bit worried about bugs going up my vagina."

Snoochie, real name Cheyenne Davide, also said she had fears about having to handle faeces when changing toilets.

Screamed

She said: "I think for me, changing the toilet situation, that could be a sticky one."

"Just thinking about the thought process of carrying the poo. Obviously you don't have to carry the poo with bare hands, but it's just the smell."

Fans of the show took to Twitter to express their disgust.

One wrote: "How annoying is the girl from #1xtra already [...] bugs up vagina... seriously..."

By GRACE HOOPER

In the show, Snoochie screamed her way across a plank which was above an abandoned quarry after admitting she was scared of heights.

Snoochie was part of the team who ended up in the main camp after Frankie Bridge won the key in the Turrets of Terror challenge.

But there was no sympathy for Snoochie's plight when Daily Mail readers heard of her bug-up-minge fears.

One spat: "Her vagina must be gaping open if she's worried about bugs getting up it!"

Another raged: "Looking at the state of her, she's probably had worse up there."

Morgue freezer man back from the dead

A MAN declared dead following a motorcycle accident and put in a morgue freezer shocked his family when they discovered he was still breathing the next day.

Srikanth Kumar, 45, was in critical condition after he was struck by the motorcycle in Moradabad, east of the Indian capital New Delhi.

He was declared dead on arrival at a private medical facility and his body was placed inside the freezer until his relatives arrived six hours later and found he was still alive.

Hospital spokesman Rajendra Kumar said: "This is nothing short of a miracle."

If you want to be happy, live in Hexham

HEXHAM has been crowned Britain's happiest place to live in an annual poll.

The "happy at home" index, now in its 10th year, asked more than 21,000 people across Britain how they feel about various aspects of where they live.

Happiness measures in the index compiled by Rightmove include friendliness and community spirit, whether people feel they can be themselves, nature and green spaces, opportunities locally to develop skills and amenities including schools, restaurants, shops and sports facilities.

The market town of Hexham, in Northumberland, previously topped the index in 2019.

The leafy London suburb of Richmond was ranked second while St Ives, in Cornwall, which came top last year, dropped to eighth.

REAR-LY FILTHY: Porn star specialises in kinky anal

ONCE upon a time, Bella Thorne was the fresh-faced star of Disney show Shake It Up.

But she's all grown up now...VERY grown up!

And Bella revealed that she was turned on while making an X-rated music video for her new single, In You, with her porn star pal Abella Danger.

The sultry vid features Abella taking the reigns as Bella is embroiled in a love triangle with her and rapper Juicy J.

Abella, 25, has starred in several X-rated films in the adult film industry.

The Miami starlet specialises in kinky ANAL, eyewatering DOUBLE PENETRATION and even FISTING!

Bella admits she just "loves sex" and wants to flaunt that sexual freedom. Speaking about the music vid, Bella said that "It's very sexual content".

In the video, she competes for Abella's affection against the 46-year-old Three 6 Mafia OG.

"All the way through, you're like, 'Damn'. Within the first 30 seconds, there's a shot of me and I put my face between her legs and I come up and my face looks so wet," she pointed out.

"It's just gnarly to look at."

Bella has released several singles throughout the years, most notably *Watch Me, B*tch*, I'm Bella

Thorne, Shake It, Lonely and Phantom.

The singer is not new to placing herself in sexually explicit and compromising positions.

Bella hit the headlines in August 2020 when she joined OnlyFans, the subscription app known for its X-rated content.

She quickly broke a record, earning $1million in her first day on the platform.

Bella said: "I just love sex. And I think that the word 'sex' has such a negative connotation, and it doesn't really make any sense since we all pretty much do it."

Discussing the recent release of her video and a particularly steamy scene in the new clip, Bella explained: "It's just too hot."

Biden wants second term... when he's 82!

JOE Biden plans to run for President AGAIN in 2024, it's been claimed.

The doddery US Commander-in-Chief (above) will seek re-election despite sagging support in the polls and voter unease about him being gaga, setting up a potential rematch with Donald Trump.

Biden, who turned 79 over the weekend, is already the oldest man to serve as president and would be 82 if he is sworn in for a second term.

Trump, 75, would be 78 if he becomes the first president since Grover Cleveland to win a second non-consecutive term.

"There were reports President Biden was telling allies he is going to run for re-election in 2024. Can you confirm, is he going to run in 2024? Is he telling staff that?" a reporter asked White House press secretary Jen Psaki on Air Force One as Biden travelled to a military event at Fort Bragg in North Carolina.

"He is, that's his intention" Psaki said.

Don't eat popcorn, you can use it to insulate the home

HOMES in the future may be insulated with POPCORN!

Scientists in Germany have developed a way to turn the cinema treat into an insulation material that's less expensive and more sustainable and environmentally friendly than current options.

Good insulation reduces heating costs, which lowers CO2 emissions, but some 90 per cent of insulation is made from petroleum-based plastic or mineral fibre.

Those non-renewable materials generate carbon during manufacturing and are rarely recycled when a building is torn down, adding to pollution.

A research team at the University of Göttingen unveiled insulation boards made of granulated popcorn that trap warmth in, offer good protection against fire and are also water-repellent.

QUEEN'S HOUSE

Brace yourself, Demi!

THE late Bobby Ball was famous for wearing braces... but he never looked like this!

Gorgeous Demi Rose wowed her Insta followers as she wore the Chanel accessory over a tight white top, with her giant busters straining beneath.

One fan said: "I want to rub her in lard. My special lard, that is. Hmmm."

A MAN has been seen exposing himself and furiously masturbating... just yards from the Queen's home at Windsor Castle.

Police are investigating four reports of indecent exposure around Home Park car park on Romney Lock Road, alongside the River Thames in the Royal town.

The incidents are reported to have happened between 4.40pm and 5.40pm on November 10 and at around 4.45pm on November 16.

In a statement, Thames Valley Police said: "A man was seen to be exposing himself and touching himself inappropriately in the car park in Home Park."

It's not thought the Queen, who is at Windsor having attended the joint baptism of the sons of Princess Eugenie and Zara Tindall at the Royal Lodge in Windsor Great Park, has been in any danger from the tosser.

Declining

A prowling pervert is the last thing the 95-year-old monarch needs at the moment.

After straining her back earlier this month, the Queen pulled out of her duties at the Remembrance Sunday service at the Cenotaph on November 11.

She returned to official engagements last Wednesday with a face-to-face audience with Gen Sir Nick Carter, the outgoing head of the armed forces.

The Queen's absence sparked fears her health was declining less than a year after the death of her husband, Prince Philip, at 99.

"She's all right, thank you very much," Prince Charles said last week,

By SUZIE SHELTON
news@sundaysport.co.uk

in response to a question about his mother's health from Sky News.

"Once you get to 95, it's not quite as easy as it used to be."

At Sunday's ceremony Princess Eugenie's son, August, and Zara Tindall's son, Lucas Philip, were christened.

Prince Andrew and the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge were also in attendance.

Meanwhile, the Queen was reported to be upset with a new BBC documentary, presented by media editor Amol Rajan.

The BBC was accused of giving credibility to 'overblown' and unfounded claims about the Royal Family after it aired a controversial documentary about William and Harry, which also included an interview from Meghan Markle's lawyer.

In an extraordinary joint statement, Buckingham Palace, Kensington Palace and Clarence House said it was 'disappointing' that the broadcaster had chosen to air allegations surrounding Harry and Meghan's departure from Britain.

SOON YOU CAN BUY A KILLING EVE KNIFE

THE show was a massive ratings success and garnered critical acclaim across the board.

And now it's been reported that Killing Eve bosses are planning to bring out a range of kitchen utensils and are said to have already trademarked the name.

Producers have reportedly registered the name with the Intellectual Property Office in order to protect the brand.

A source said: "Killing Eve has been a huge success and really put Jodie Comer and Sandra Oh on the map."

"The producers are keen to protect their baby and have trademarked the name against various items."

"I'm sure they can come up with a kitchen utensil or two that hitwoman Villanelle would be delighted to use."

Jodie's role as Villanelle (right) won her the Primetime Emmy Award for Outstanding Lead Actress in a Drama Series and the British Academy Television Award for Best Actress.

HALLE Berry has spoken about her first-time on-screen lesbian romp.

It was Atim's first-ever on-screen love scene and Berry's first same-sex love scene.

"I knew that I was in control," Halle (above) said, adding that she wanted to be "sensitive" to the LGBTQ community in the way she staged that scene.

"I think [Sheila] really felt comfortable knowing that it was in the hands of a woman, that she could trust I wasn't out to exploit her in any way but just service these characters in the movie."

'Anxiety' and 'shame' over willy size

MILLENNIALS and members of Generation Z are hung up on penis size, a new survey has found.

Medical website Medzino quizzed 1,003 American adults of all ages and discovered younger respondents are more likely to say size matters in the bedroom.

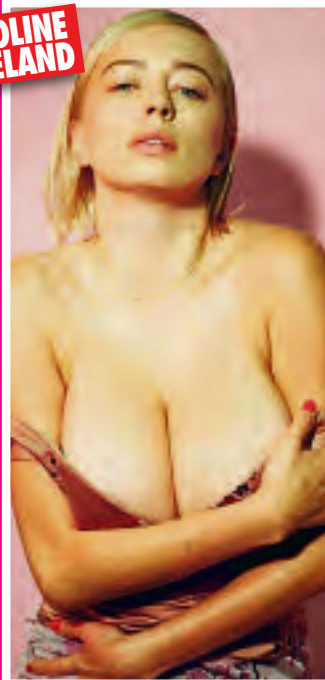

While 61% of Baby Boomers and 60% of Gen X'ers believed penis size was crucial to sexual pleasure, the numbers were higher among those in their 20s and 30s.

Almost three-quarters of millennials (25-40) said size is important, while the number increased to 85% among members of Gen Z (under 24).

Almost half of all male respondents (44%) said they'd experienced sexual performance anxiety due to the size of their penis and 39% of men said they had felt "shame" about their manhood.

STILL think we're not living in a police state?

A dying man was nicked by SIX cops who wrestled him to the ground after he was accused of "mooning" at a speed camera.

Darrell Meekcom, 55, has written a list of things he wants to do before he dies after he was diagnosed with multiple system atrophy, a terminal condition which affects the nervous system.

He managed to tick one of these off his wishlist when he bared his naked bottom at a mobile speed camera van in Kidderminster, Worcestershire.

Kicked

But he was left stunned when the officer failed to see the funny side and reported him for indecent exposure.

Mr Meekcom, who also has Parkinson's disease and kidney failure, said just 20 minutes later three police cars pulled up at his home and officers demanded to be let in.

This in a country where the cops say they're too BUSY to investigate burglaries.

When Mr Meekcom refused, he says the officers raided his property and kicked down the garden gate before tackling him to the ground and handcuffing him.

Spacey told to pay £23m over sex-pest claim

DISGRACED actor Kevin Spacey has been ordered to pay £23m in damages and fees to the producer of the Netflix series House of Cards.

An arbitrator found that he breached his contract by violating the company's sexual harassment policy.

Spacey, 62, starred in the political thriller as President Frank Underwood until he was suspended and then fired from the show in 2017 over an avalanche of sexual misconduct claims.

It was alleged that he inappropriately touched a young male production assistant and created a 'toxic' environment on set. Multiple sources claimed at the time that Spacey "groped the PA" who had been tasked with driving the actor to hospital after he injured his hand.

The assistant is said to have later complained to a superior about the incident. It is also alleged that he groped an actor who wanted to audition for the show.

A TRIO of armed robbers picked on the wrong guy... an Uber driver who was also packing heat and shot at them.

The unidentified driver was in Philadelphia's Mayfair neighbourhood when the robbers were seen running up to him.

That's when the driver blasted away at the robbers, who ran for their lives, and two got hit.

Police said one of the wounded men was later pronounced dead at Jefferson Torresdale Hospital and the other is in critical condition.

The two shot suspects were not identified, but police said both were 20.

The third suspect remains on the loose.

The United States allows robbery victims to shoot robbers, unlike this country where the victim would be locked up and the criminals sent on safari.

I WASN'T W*NKING ...I WAS SENDING AN EMAIL! Prof sues over uni sacking

By SUZIE SHELTON news@sundaysport.co.uk

A UNIVERSITY professor who lost his job after he was accused of furiously masturbating on camera during a Zoom lecture is suing his former employer.

And a student who claims her civil rights were violated after she viewed the alleged indecent act is suing the same uni.

Howard Robinson, 69, a professor at Fordham University, New York, denied self-gratification took place during his class and claims he was trying to send an email while dealing with an urgent need to use the toilet.

His student, Andrea Morin, claims to have witnessed the indecent act and captured it on her mobile phone.

Morin claims she failed the class as a result of witnessing the act and was retaliated against for making the complaint, scuppering her scholarship.

Prof Robinson claims he is incapable of being aroused because he suffers from erectile dysfunction.

"No, I was not masturbating," he said. "The thought of masturbating was the furthest thing from my mind. I was totally focused on teaching."

Robinson, who was a professor of social work, was fired within days in a letter which stated "more likely than not you engaged in conduct in violation of the Fordham Sexual and Related Misconduct Policy".

Robinson maintains he was frantically attempting to attach a

PowerPoint presentation to an email and what Morin saw as him masturbating was in fact a "technologically challenged middle-aged man with bladder control problems".

Morin claims she saw her professor moving back and forth, red-faced and panting while moving his arms around rapidly for 90 seconds before saying the word "Fk" out loud.

A MANIAC punched a one-year-old baby in the face at a hospital after he said he was told he must hurt the boy in order to get into heaven, cops say.

Elijah Flick-Geibel, 19, was in a wheelchair at Butler Memorial Hospital in Pennsylvania on his way to the behavioural health urgent care area when he suddenly arose and approached a mother and her child.

A hospital employee heard the woman scream 'He hit my baby'.

The boy's cheek was left red-marked and Flick-Geibel was quickly subdued by hospital staff and security.

He is facing charges of aggravated assault of a child, simple assault and disorderly conduct.

THE ROCK: I WANT TO BE JAMES BOND

THE Rock wants to be the next 007.

Pro wrestling star turned actor Dwayne Johnson is interested in succeeding Daniel Craig as James Bond.

"I would like to follow in his footsteps and be the next Bond," Johnson, 49, said in an interview with Esquire.

Johnson (below), whose grandfather Peter Maivia played a Bond villain in the 1967 movie You Only Live Twice, isn't content with just appearing in any role in the movie franchise.

"I don't want to be a villain," he said. "You gotta be Bond."

Craig's fifth performance as the British spy in No Time to Die, which came to cinemas last month, was his last in the role.

If The Rock gets his wish of starring as the iconic movie character, the prolific actor will become the ninth man to play the MI6 secret agent.

Frenzied cash grab as security truck spills bills

IT wasn't pennies from heaven... it was twenty dollar notes!

An armoured truck spilled its trove on a California motorway, sparking a cash-grab frenzy that resulted in two arrests.

The truck's door flew open, sending bills flying over Interstate 5 near Carlsbad, halting traffic as drivers got out of their cars to snatch what they could.

A man and a woman were arrested on suspicion of taking some of the money after getting locked out of their vehicle.

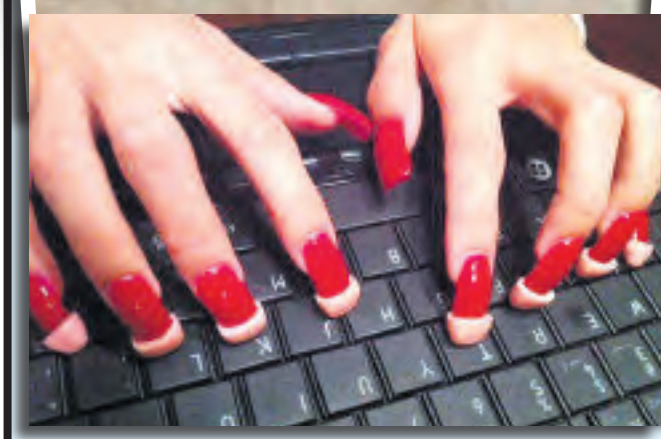

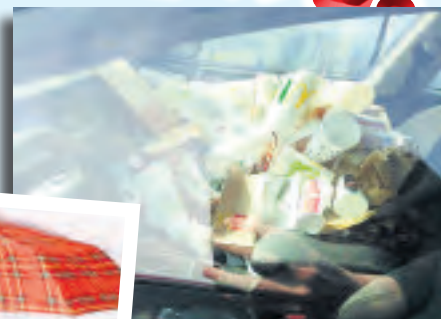

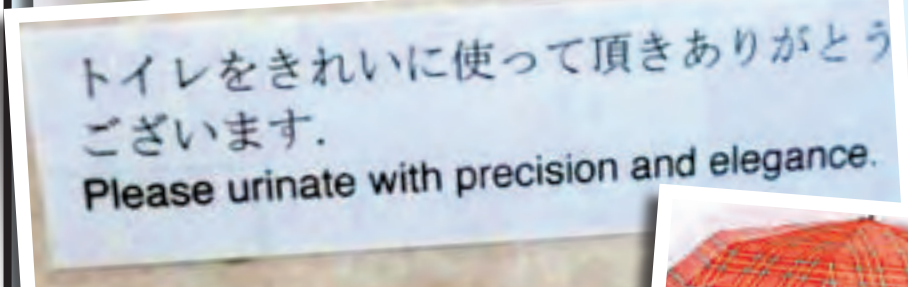

A video posted on TikTok by user Demi Bagby showed drivers frantically picking up bills.

Some yelled with joy while posing with their loot in the middle of the road, with traffic at a standstill.

The Sectran Security Inc vehicle was pulled over on the highway as officials investigated how the doors opened.

KATIE Price and boyfriend Carl Woods are trying to laugh off the backlash from angry fans who slammed their fake wedding in Las Vegas.

The couple jetted off to Sin City earlier this month amid rumours they were due to exchange vows.

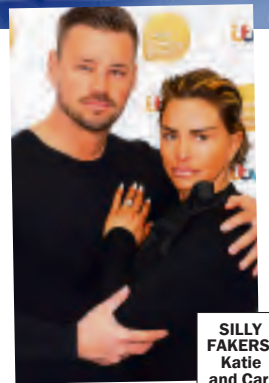

Mum-of-five Katie, 43, was even spotted shopping for wedding dresses after she and the former Love Island star obtained a marriage licence.

Ex-Page 3 model Katie also teased the location of their 'wedding' in a video of her and Carl at the Caesars Palace chapel, telling her 2.7 million followers something had been "done and dusted".

However, Carl issued a statement on social media to confirm their trip to Vegas was simply to try to fool the media into thinking they were tying the knot.

Despite Katie's weird publicity stunt, plenty of babes HAVE wed in Vegas.

Here are a few of them... with their busters out!

TO his loving family, Scott Peterson was the 'perfect husband' who, with stunning wife Laci, was about to welcome a baby boy into the world.

But smiling psychopath Peterson was actually a 'world-class liar', who was leading a double-life and dating a blonde massage therapist behind Laci's back.

His murderous web of deceit was only revealed when Laci's dismembered body washed up on the shore – along with that of her unborn son...

THE CHARMING PSYCHOPATH

HORROR: Cops move Laci's body after it had washed up on shore

THE WORLD'S MOST EVIL MURDERERS AND THE HORRIFIC CRIMES THAT SAW THEM SENTENCED TO DEATH...

WITH his devilish grin and devastating good looks, Scott Peterson is the most lusted-after man on America's Death Row.

His mailbag at California's infamous San Quentin prison bulges with twisted marriage proposals from sick women who began to lust after him following his high-profile trial in 2003.

Peterson was the inspiration for the character played by Hollywood hunk Ben Affleck in the 2014 movie Gone Girl.

But looks can be deceiving.

By KOURTNEY KENNEDY
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Because Peterson, now 43, is a cold, calculating deviant who deserves his fate – to be executed by lethal injection.

This is a man who took out a life insurance premium when he found out his wife, Laci, was expecting his child – a boy they'd already agreed to name Conner.

This is a man who made secret phone calls to his bit on the side, attractive Amber Frey, as he attended a vigil for his then-missing wife.

And this is a man who was arrested seemingly in the nick of time, as he sat in a car weighed down with a killer's tool kit as he stalked his next victim.

In the end, Peterson wanted a return to his bachelor ways, free from the obligations of his impending family life.

But now he rots in isolation, waiting to die.

Hell

It's no wonder Laci's poor mother, Sharon Rocha, screamed with rage when she addressed him in the courtroom shortly before his death sentence was passed in March 2005.

She'd told him: 'You deserve to burn in Hell for all eternity!'

'Were you proud? Did it give you a sense of accomplishment?'

'You tossed her away like garbage. She was not your possession to get rid of, she was my baby.'

'I entrusted her to you. You betrayed me and you betrayed Laci. "I'll never know my grandson."

'Would he have long, dark eyelashes? "Would he have her dimples? Would he like school or sports?'

'Would he cry when he has his picture taken with Santa?'

'What would be in his Easter basket?'

'You are a monster. Besides occasionally fidgeting in his chair, Peterson showed little emotion during his trial.'

At one point he even laughed out loud when a lawyer made a joke about car salesmen.

If he felt one shred of guilt over the grisly deeds he performed, this well-educated former university student didn't show it.

Events had begun to unfold on Christmas Eve 2002.

According to the version of events put up by Peterson, he headed out to Berkeley Marina for a fishing trip.

He'd left Laci – fresh from painting Conner's nursery pastel blue as part of a nautical theme – to walk their pet golden retriever, McKenzie.

When he returned to their shared home in Modesto, California, Laci was nowhere to be found and the alarm was raised.

Cops didn't know that eight-months pregnant Laci, 27, was already dead, her corpse weighed down in the ocean.

Search

Laci's family and friends organised a vigil and initially stood by Peterson, despite rumours of his potential actions spreading like wildfire.

To the Rochas, Scott was a loyal and loving husband.

Laci's younger sister, Amy, told how she hoped to find a man just like Scott one day.

But as weeks passed and the hunt intensified, Peterson's behaviour began to seem more and more odd.

He stormed out of press conferences when asked probing questions and let his phone ring during interviews. Surely a man desperately searching for clues about the whereabouts of his wife would want to take a call which might offer hope?

While police and volunteers combed the countryside for clues, Peterson sulked in his sister Anne's apartment, watching TV and porn channels.

Then, on January 24, 2003, the mask slipped entirely.

Amber Frey approached police to say that she'd been having an affair with Scott. They'd met just a month before Laci's disappearance.

Scott hadn't told her he was married. And Amber, once a nude model, only realised the terrible truth when she saw him on TV begging for info about the woman he'd married in 1997.

Chillingly, Amber told how in December, two weeks before Laci's disappearance, Peterson had described himself as a 'widower' and spoke movingly about how it would be his 'first Christmas without his wife'.

Laci's brother Brent told the media: 'I'm only left to question what else he may be hiding from us.'

Death

'We have so many questions that he has not answered. I am no longer supporting him.'

Cops intensified their searches of Peterson's house, car and boat.

That's when they discovered he was due a sum of $250,000 in the event of Laci's death.

Just weeks after her disappearance, Peterson also sold Laci's expensive

Land Rover Discovery SE car.

But with no hard evidence to go on, officers could only wait for further developments.

They didn't have to wait long.

In April 2003, a couple walking their dog along the San Francisco Bay shore, 90 miles from the Petersons' house, came upon the decomposing body of a male foetus.

It was Conner. An autopsy found nylon tape wrapped around the baby's neck and a cut on its body.

A day later, Laci's body washed ashore, too.

She had been decapitated, both her forearms were missing, the left leg below the knee removed and the right foot was severed.

She had also been disemboweled.

With Amber ready to testify against Peterson and armed with proof of Laci and Conner's murders, cops swooped and arrested Peterson in a golf club car park on April 18.

He had grown a goatee and bleached both it and his hair blonde in an attempt to disguise himself.

Escape

In his car, he was carrying $15,000 in cash, four mobile phones, camping equipment, 12 tablets of Viagra, knives, a double-edged dagger, a shovel, rope, sleeping pills, a loaded gun – and a map to Amber's place of work.

No-one can ever be sure of Peterson's intentions, but on the face of it Amber looks to have had a very lucky escape.

Peterson's murder trial began in earnest in June 2004 amid some unprecedented media coverage.

While hard evidence was thin on the ground – cops had found one of Laci's hairs in Peterson's pair of pliers – his excuses were risible.

First his defence team blamed a Satanic cult for the murder, before fingering a woman who'd been stealing the Petersons' mail.

In their view, Peterson was a 'cad', but not a killer.

The jury didn't buy it. On November 12 they convicted Peterson of first-degree murder for killing Laci, and second-degree murder for killing her unborn son.

On March 16, 2005, Judge Alfred Delucchi formally sentenced Peterson to death.

His voice wavering, Delucchi said: "You are cruel, uncaring, heartless and callous."

The young boy, Conner, was never permitted to draw a breath on Earth."

Drowned

The exact cause of death for Laci and Conner were never determined due to the extent of decomposition.

But Peterson's sister Anne is certain she knows what happened, having been the closest family member to him.

She recently said: "I think he drowned her in their pool.

It's a silent death. Nobody would hear anything.

"It's hard for me to think about it because I picture Laci and it really hurts."

"She loved to float in the pool to ease the stress on her body from pregnancy."

"I just know that's what he did. It's hard to comprehend. And it hurts."

In a tragic twist, Peterson's new home in San Quentin State Prison overlooks the bay where Laci's body was discarded.

Laci's grief-stricken family can only hope that their spirits float up from the waves to haunt Peterson every time he closes his eyes.

Killers burned home to hide evidence, cops say

TWO men have been charged with murder after a missing woman's dismembered remains were found in the home of one of the suspects.

James Phelps, 58, and Timothy Norton, 56, have been in jail since mid-September after they were charged with kidnapping Cassidy Rainwater.

The murder charges came after the 33-year-old woman's remains were positively identified.

The two were first busted after authorities found photos of Cassidy partially nude in a cage at Phelps' home near Lebanon, Missouri.

Gutting

Phelps had told cops that Cassidy, who was reported missing in August, stayed at his house temporarily but left to go to Colorado.

But investigators searching Phelps' home found human remains in a freezer, along with a cage and a gantry device commonly used for gutting deer.

According to police,

STRANGLED: CassidyBy GRACE HOOPER

Norton said he held Cassidy down while Phelps placed a plastic bag over her head and strangled her.

Phelps reportedly bound the victim to the gantry crane before he dismembered her body.

Phelps' home was destroyed by fire on October 4. Investigators ruled the blaze an arson and found two explosive devices nearby.

Phelps and Norton have also been charged with abandoning a corpse.

THE LOVE TRIANGLE FROM HELL

BUSTY beach babe Marta Dabrowski admits she loves nothing more than sunbathing NAKED!

The blonde bombshell confessed that she always goes TOPLESS on sunny afternoons during the summer months to avoid tan lines.

And Marta, from Hackney, north London, reckons her stunning exhibitionist display is the perfect way to attract blokes!

The 36C scorcher said: "I love feeling the heat of the sun on my bare body. When I'm relaxing nude at the beach, all the guys start checking me out – which isn't really surprising!"

And Marta isn't shy about mixing sun, sea and sand with sex when she's in the mood for some hot action.

She added: "Most fellas don't think they have much of a chance with me, but I'm actually very fun and flirty."

"I'm definitely up for a holiday romance. You're away from home, so why not?"

JUSTIN DUNN'S ROOM 101

WHAT'S ANNOYING HIM THIS WEEK?

Don't weep for Ole

DOES anybody really, REALLY, give a toss about Ole Gunnar Solskjaer getting the sack from Manchester United?

As a Liverpool fan, I'd have much rather he stayed.

Like everyone else who has ever driven down a motorway, we all embarrassingly enjoy a car crash as long as we're not in it.

And watching Ole flail around like a landed salmon, starved of oxygen, absolutely bugged unless someone else helped him out, was a beauty to behold.

Let's just say this out loud:

Ole was ABSOLUTELY SHIT.

The players under his charge – and most of them individually are pretty excellent – played with no belief and, most of all, no interest.

They just couldn't care less.

That's not to their credit – an argument for another day – but I don't blame them, either.

Ole was just dreadful.

One of the biggest clubs in the world led by a managerial also-ran once sacked by Cardiff.

Misery

I know plenty of United fans who claimed to have loved the bones of him right up until around 10.30am on Sunday morning when the news came that he'd been put out of his misery.

They were popping corks. And rightly so.

Much as I hate the club, I also don't want to see it completely on its knees, either.

And that's where it was heading. But some of the crocodile tears about their "legend" are just that. Pure bollocks.

You'd think someone had died.

Except he hasn't, has he?

Instead, for being arguably the shittiest United manager since the last one, and the one before that, and also before the one who was before that, he's walked the plank aided only by a cheque for £7.5 MILLION quid.

Okay, it's not as much as the eight million Steve Bruce trousered for being bumped out of Newcastle United, but you get my drift.

These guys and their families aren't going to starve.

To put this into equivalence, the last time I got sacked for being absolutely rubbish I got the precise leaving sum of bugger all.

Which I expected.

Because getting sacked in the real world is not rewardable.

It's punishment.

"You were rubbish, so please get off our premises."

Tosser

We don't burst into tears when a politician gets the heave-ho for being a tosser, walking away with a mere eighty grand a year pension and access to the Palace of Westminster's taxpayer-subsidised bars and restaurants for life.

Nor do we rush to the florists to buy bouquets to commemorate our local £250,000-a-year local council chief executives sadly quitting to move into a neighbouring council for another ten or twenty grand more.

Only in football do we have this utterly pretend, Wizard of Oz-style nonsense going on about managers.

Again: Ole was crap.

And for being crap, he's got another £7.5m on top of his whopping salary, more money than almost anyone reading this can ever dream of.

So spare us the tears and the sanctimony.

You were well paid for a really bad effort.

Now fk right off and let the Castle Greyskull fans watch some proper United football again.

WELCOME to the World famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice – or experience – than our own Agony Angels! This week ASHLEIGH GEE has been reading through your letters. And here's her advice for you...

Watching hubby romp with busty blonde brings me off

Dear Ashleigh,

I'VE been married to my hubby for five years and thought that we had a great sex life.

But he dropped a bombshell a couple of weeks ago when he told me he wanted to shag another girl while I watched them at it. And I was more shocked when I realised how turned-on I was by the kinky idea!

So I agreed to it and we set about arranging to meet someone.

We didn't want it to be a woman we both knew, so we went online and signed up to some swingers' sites.

We soon found a lady we both liked the look of, and her profile fitted in with what we wanted, so we contacted her and arranged to meet up.

When she arrived at our house she looked even better than her online photos – she was blonde and busty with long legs, in her mid 30s.

Horny

I could see my hubby fancied her straight away and that made me feel pretty horny, too.

We had a few drinks together and relaxed in the lounge before my hubby made the first move and asked if she'd like to pop upstairs to our bedroom and get more comfortable.

So we all trooped upstairs, giggling away and playfully groping each other on the stairs and once in the bedroom the other girl slipped her arms around my man's neck and kissed him full on the mouth.

Then she knelt in front of him and unzipped his flies, taking his hard cock in her mouth.

She was soon licking and sucking on his balls and slipped her hands between his arse cheeks to touch him round the bumhole, too.

Then she pushed him back onto the bed and clambered on top, gripping him between her thighs and lowering her pussy on his cock.

He was moaning and begging her to fk him but she stayed still, teasing him for a while until he was bucking his hips.

She looked at me questioningly and I told her to fk him hard.

So she ride him fast until he was ready to explode, before rolling onto her back and telling him to wank himself off all over her bare boobs.

It was the horniest thing I'd ever seen – her on the bed and him kneeling over her, pulling himself off before splashing his hot juice all over her.

And I brought myself to the most amazing climax watching them.

Now he wants me to have sex with the woman too, but I'm not sure.

SD, Maidstone

Ashleigh says...

YOU should only ever agree to do things you are comfortable with. Tell him you like the way things are at the moment.

Dear Ashleigh,

Hungry babe likes to nibble on my meat

Dear Ashleigh,

MY girlfriend pretends to bite my knob while she's giving me a blowie.

Not properly, mind – she just occasionally scrapes her teeth along my length or the tip.

She says her ex really got off on it, but it freaks me out and I haven't been able to climax in her mouth, even though her gobbling technique is first rate.

Any advice?

LD, Bury

Ashleigh says...

TELL her you're NOT her ex, so she needs to cut it out!

Dear Ashleigh,

I'M quite a large fella – I'm 6ft 3in tall and weigh around 15 stone – but my cock is only three and a half inches long when it's erect.

My missus says the size of it doesn't matter to her, but I feel really terrible about it.

I would really love to be able to give her more meat, and have been thinking of maybe having a penis extension operation in the New Year.

Do you know if they cost a lot of money?

DB, north London

Ashleigh says...

IF your girlfriend is happy, why worry?

I CAUGHT my wife with our window cleaner a couple of weeks ago.

To my amazement, I got really aroused as he fked her in a number of positions.

They couldn't see me as I was peering through the lounge window, so I tossed myself off as he nailed her.

The mucky fella was really pounding away and she was screaming at him to give it to her.

Later on she tugged him off until he spunked all over her face and tits.

And boy did he have a load of soapy suds to spill!

This happens every week now and my sex life with the wife has improved no end.

Do you think I'm some sort of pervert?

HC, Lancs

Ashleigh says...

NO – just a man with very clean windows!

Dear Ashleigh,

I AM a 40-year-old woman and have been married to my fella of 50 for 10 years.

I thought we had a good sex life together until I found a massive stash of porn in the shed, where he seems to spend more and more time these days.

He's got a small TV and an old DVD player in there and he must have a hundred or more porn films.

Is this normal for men of his age?

What shall I do?

SR, Oxford

Ashleigh says...

WATCH some together!

DO YOU HAVE A SEX PROBLEM?

MY SEX FANTASY

...WITH JENNY
McCLAIN,
36F, FROM
HOVE, EAST
SUSSEX

'I get myself going with a w*nk as my man watches'

I GET so turned on by touching myself in front of a bloke.

The first time I did it, it felt really naughty and taboo and these days I do it quite a lot!

I think that guys find it really sexy when a woman has the confidence to give herself an orgasm in front of their lover.

And it takes the pressure off them a bit, too! I love masturbating myself while having sex with me on top.

And I haven't tried it yet, but I would love to touch myself while on camera. Doing it while online would be super horny.

It's about letting your inhibitions go, doing something you would normally only do in private.

I also find it super hot to see a guy wanking.

I love it when a man squirts all over my boobs or face.

BUSTY Jessica Moore isn't shy and reckons she is a "natural show-off".

Thankfully, that mainly involves showing off her big old busters!

As soon as she turned 18, the Hungarian-born starlet started posing for topless photos.

She said: "It's something I always wanted to do, as I'm a natural show-off."

And with 34E curves, there's plenty to show off!

Juicy Jess soon found that was not enough and moved into the exciting world of porn.

Her entry on the Boobpedia website says it all:

"Jessica Moore is known as an anal queen among many porn fans because of her well-received performances in films such as Ass Pounders 6, DP Fanatics 3, Gaper Maker 7, and a number of other anally-oriented films."

SHOW ME THE HONEY!

WELCOME to interactive Midweek Sport where YOU get to choose the stunnas appearing on these pages!

That's right fellas, we publish sexy snaps of the babes you most want to see, TOPLESS or even NAKED.

Every Wednesday, Show Me the Honey features the cute curves of the glamour girls you're clamouring for.

And this service, UNIQUE to British newspapers, is FREE!

All you have to do is send an email to request@sundaysport.co.uk telling us why you want to see your fave girl, then sit back and let us do the rest.

PAMELA HOKSH

POSTMAN Gareth Davies wrote in asking for a sultry topless snap of his favourite glamour girl, Pamela Hoksh.

The Rhyl-born postie, 36, delivers the Welsh people's post every day but it's Hungary-born Pam who he wants signed, sealed and delivered.

He said: "She's a real woman. Budapest is quite a way away, but if Pamela is there it's well worth the drive. 'I definitely wouldn't mind putting my stamp on those 32D knockers!'"

LARISSA SUMMERS

BANKER James Acton might be a posh toff but he loves a good pair of boobs, just like the rest of us.

James, 51, from Chelsea in west London, emailed in asking for a busty photo of 30D Larissa Summers.

He said: "I spend my days counting the money of the rich and famous, but I'd love to spend a good wad of my own dough on Larissa!"

"She's got a cracking pair and I wouldn't mind whisking her away for a weekend in her home city of Bristol. 'Not that we'd be seeing much outside of the hotel!'"

CHARLOTTE ELIZABETH

KENNEL owner Frank Watts deals with dogs every day but says there's nothing wrong with Charlotte Elizabeth's bouncing puppies.

The 57-year-old opened his kennels 30 years ago in Horsham, Surrey, but away from animals, he feasts his eyes on Chesterfield babe Charlotte.

He said: "I'd love to see a topless photo of her in the paper, to keep me busy on the cold winter nights."

"I look after other folks' pets during the day, but at night there's only two puppies enjoy ogling... Charlotte's 34Bs!"

MILLIE Fenton is the best thing to come from Biddulph in Staffs, since Victorian artist Robert Bateman (look him up).

And as well as being as pretty as a picture herself, marvellous Millie has a saucy side.

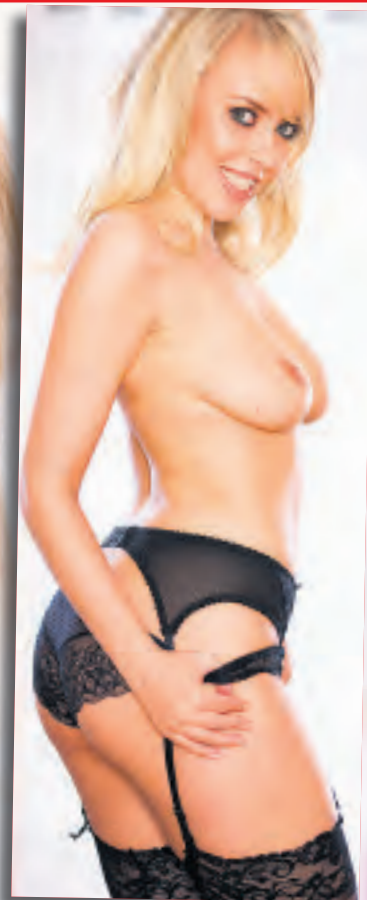

Because the 32DD model has also starred in her own saucy SEX TAPE!

She said: "I made a sex movie many years ago with an ex."

"Filming it and then watching it back was hot."

"It makes you feel like a naughty porn star!"

Millie added: "I love dressing up in bed, too. I have a foxy little French maid outfit which always gets men going..."

SOLID: Pat Cummins

Pat on the back from Oz legend Warney

CRICKET

PAT Cummins is the man to lead Australia against England in the Ashes says Shane Warne.

The Aussie legend has backed the big bowler after the latest scandal hit down under.

They have lost skipper Tim Paine after he was caught sending pictures of his meat and two veg to a woman other than his wife.

Steve Smith is still out of the running after the sandpapergate cheating scandal when he was in charge of the Baggy Greens.

Warney reckons Cummins is the ideal man for the job to calm the scandal.

He said: "For me, the time is right to make Pat Cummins captain, something I thought even before the events unfolded."

"The poster boy, respected and loved the world over, Pat Cummins should now be named captain, and either Matt Wade, Josh Inglis or Alex Carey should get their chance to come in and play Paine's role in the Test team."

Dick

"Inglis gets my vote. He's got silky smooth hands behind the stumps, he's a 36-degree player with the bat and coming off three first class hundreds last season for Western Australia."

"He's a great team man who I saw first hand at the London Spirit this year. He's 26. Get him in."

Warne thinks it's a shame that a few dick pics have cost Paine his Test career.

He added: "It was sad to see what happened on so many levels and the circumstances in which Tim was forced to stand down from the captaincy."

"I really feel for him, what he's going through, and what his family is going through."

"I'm not judging him on this incident. Just because Tim is in the public eye doesn't mean he won't make a mistake."

"Sportspersons are human, they have feelings. Let's stop the judgement. It's not our place to do that."

UNITED PLAYERS REGROUP AFTER BOSS

RONNIE: SORRY GAFFER

CR7 message to sacked Solskjaer

OLE Gunnar Solskjaer is "an outstanding human being" says Cristiano Ronaldo.

The Portugal ace has sent the Norwegian a heartfelt message as he got the boot from Old Trafford.

Ronaldo said: "He's been my striker when I first came to Old Trafford and he's been my coach since I came back to Man United."

"But most of all, Ole is an outstanding human being. I wish him the best in whatever his life has reserved for him. Good luck, my friend! You deserve it!"

Now all attention is turning to who will be the next head on the chopping block in the United hotseat.

Already it looks as though early reports suggesting Brendan Rodgers could be the man seem to be wide of the mark.

Zinedine Zidane was another name in the frame but the trail is going cold there too. Ajax chief Erik Ten Hag is being mentioned by lots of people who claim to be in the know.

By PAUL THOMAS

But now it's the turn of Mauricio Pochettino to be in the spotlight.

The Argie former Spurs boss is thought to be Sir Alex Ferguson's favoured candidate to take over.

And the man himself is reportedly ready to walk out on current club Paris St Germain this side of Christmas.

United legend Gary Neville thinks Pochettino could be tempted by the long-term project at Old Trafford.

He said: "I think Pochettino – although he'd never say it publicly – would leave to come to Man United on a five-year deal tomorrow."

"He'd look at that group of players, he'd look at the club and he'd realise he'd probably be able to achieve more than he wants at Man United in terms of a project."

"At Paris St Germain you are on season by season, 'you've got to win the Champions League or you're out' type of model."

"I don't think that way suits Pochettino."

"I think he would absolutely come to Man United on a five-year deal, with backing behind him."

Doubt

Just because Pochettino may be available, it doesn't mean the Reds should rush to get him on board, according to Neville.

He added: "Absolutely they should wait. There's been no one available in the last three or four weeks when this has come to a head that you could have given a three-and-a-half-year contract to."

"I've got no doubt about Antonio Conte's quality as a manager, but this club wouldn't appoint him. Man City wouldn't appoint him. They wouldn't appoint Jose Mourinho."

"United have had that experience of appointing what would be a 'hit job' manager and they're not going to do it. He was never going to be appointed."

"They have to make sure they get the next one right, if that means being patient for six months to wait for managers to become available at the end of the season."

The problem with waiting until the summer is who will lead the team in the meantime.

Finishing in the Champions League places would seem critical to getting top-class players in next summer's transfer window.

That is looking a tall order with United already sitting six points off fourth spot.

With Chelsea, Manchester City and Liverpool guaranteed to finish

PAID THE PRICE FOR POOR RESULTS

GUTTED: Ronaldo is sorry Solskjaer got sacked by United in the top three – in whichever order – there's only fourth place left.

Rejuvenated West Ham currently sit in that spot with the likes of improving Arsenal, Spurs under Conte, Leicester and Wolves also right in the mix.

At the moment, United are not going to have those teams quaking in their boots.

Forceful

Michael Carrick is the man in the hotseat for the moment and he has zero experience of managing even a pub side.

He has Mick Phelan there but he was relegated with Hull the last time he led a club – and the other coaches are wet behind the ears.

Should Pochettino not come in the next couple of weeks, surely United will need a more forceful figurehead until the end of the season. Recently sacked Newcastle gaffer Steve Bruce says he'd be happy to step in and help while the likes of Bryan Robson could also be called on.

One even more controversial name is Roy Keane.

He has been vocal in criticising United players as a TV pundit and has more coaching experience than most of the other candidates. He bossed Sunderland and Ipswich with some success and has been No2 at Aston Villa and Ireland.

His telly mate Micah Richards reckons he would be ideal to shake the squad up for a few months at least.

He said: "Give it Keane till the end of the season.

"I think Roy Keane would be a great manager. He's slagged off half the dressing room!

"But in terms of what they need, I think he could do a job. Course he could do a job."

BIG DEAL: Southgate

Gareth signs up for two more years

GARETH Southgate says it's a "great privilege" to manage England as he signs a new £5m contract to boss the Three Lions.

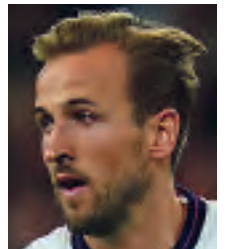

He will stay in charge until December 2024 with assistant manager Steve Holland signing up for the same period.

The 51-year-old has led England to the World Cup semis and final of the Euros in the past two tournaments.

Now he is setting his sights on a strong show in Qatar next winter. Southgate passes five years in charge this month and is looking forward to the next chapter.

He said: "I am delighted that Steve and I have been able to extend our stay in our respective roles.

"It remains an incredible privilege to lead this team. I would like to take this opportunity to thank the FA and the board for their support – and of course the players and support team for their hard work.

SKIPPER: Harry Kane

Sacked

"We have a great opportunity in front of us. I know they and the fans are all excited about what this squad could achieve in future."

Southgate was been linked with a return to club management when his former club Aston Villa sacked Dean Smith.

He was also put in the frame for Man United at one point.

But he says there is a lot more work to be done with England before he heads back to the Premier League.

Southgate added: "People are always looking at what's next in their life and career and maybe don't live for what they are doing now.

NEW DEAL: Steve Holland

"When you have got a good team and where you have done a lot of work to get them to challenge, you want to bring that to fruition.

"England have still only won one World Cup but we still think that's possible.

"In international football it's very difficult but that's a goal we should have.

"To walk away now when the next few years could be so exciting, it would have been very difficult.

"Even at the end of this contract I will only be 53 and I have a lot of my career left after that.

"But to be in a project like this and be supported is hugely important and I wanted to carry that on.

"The last five years have been incredible and there is still room for the team to develop.

"We are very much looking forward to Qatar next winter."

HOOPS HUNT TREBLE GLORY

CELTIC striker James Forrest says the Glasgow giants are DESPERATE to win another treble this season.

The Hoops have fallen behind Rangers in the Old Firm pecking order but scent blood now that Steven Gerrard has left Ibrox.

They made the Scottish League Cup final by beating St Johnstone while the Light Blues crashed out against Hibernian.

Forrest reckons the balance of power in Scotland is swinging back Celtic's way. He said: "Everyone is buzzing to come for a final now. Was this a chance to show we are back? Definitely!

"Last season was the first in I don't know how long we didn't win a trophy, so with a new team and a new manager it's great to get into a final.

"I think lately things have been really positive and really good."

UNITED GO FOR MO

And Pochettino will take the job NOW

MAURICIO Pochettino is ready to walk out on Paris St Germain to become Manchester United manager.

The Red Devils have just shown poor Ole Gunnar Solskjaer the door after a shocking run of results.

Getting tonked 4-1 by struggling Watford was the final straw. The board said they would be looking for an interim manager until the end of the season.

But reports in France suggest Pochettino would be willing to leave PSG now and head for Old Trafford.

The 49-year-old has just under two years left on his deal in France and has the Parisians 11 points clear at the top of the table.

But he wants more of a long-term project and sees United as the perfect place for him.

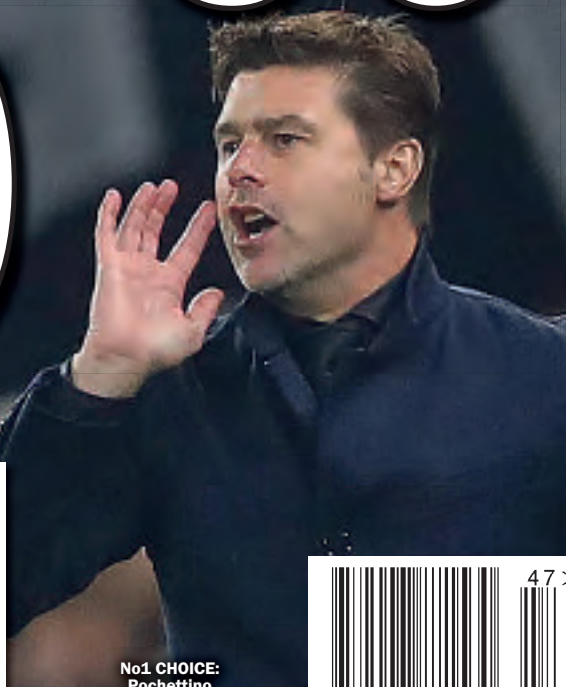

Pochettino's family still live in England and he has unfinished business in the Premier League after his foolish sacking by Spurs.

PSG would like to have France legend Zinedine

Zidane in charge and he's currently kicking his heels.

Zizou has also been linked with United but his lack of England is a worry Old Trafford insiders say Pochettino is the club's new first-choice with Brendan Rodgers falling down the pecking order.

The Reds are willing to pay PSG around £9m in compo to get Poch.
